G RANTS FOR TRAVEL AND RESEARCH
Palestine Exploration Fund

Description:

The Palestine Exploration Fund invites applications for its grants for travel and research. These help scholars conduct research into the archaeology and history, topography, geology, natural sciences, and manners, customs and culture of Palestine and the Levant. Grants support individual, small-scale studies leading to the completion of a set piece of work, such as an article or thesis.

Although the fund is open to members of all nationalities, priority is given to scholars at an early stage of their career as well as graduate students.

A total of £4,000 is available, of which up to three awards of £500 each are set aside for student travel to the Levant.

Closing date: 31 Jan 15 (Forecast)

MELLON VISITING FELLOWSHIPS Harvard University

Description:

Harvard University's Center for Italian Renaissance Studies, Villa I Tatti, invites applications for the Mellon visiting fellowships. These are designed to support and promote Italian renaissance studies in areas that have been under-represented at the centre.

Subjects include the architecture, history, literature, material culture, music, philosophy, religion, science or visual arts of Italy from the 13th to the 17th centuries. Scholars can also apply to work on the transmission and circulation of ideas, objects and people during the renaissance, into and beyond the Italian peninsula or the historiography of the Italian renaissance. Applicants must hold a PhD or equivalent, received between 2003 and 2012. They must be conversant in either English or Italian, able to understand both languages and must be able to carry out most of their research in Florence. Preference will be given to scholars embarking on a new project, and to those planning to teach in Asia, Islamic countries, Latin America and the Mediterranean basin.

Periods of residence can range between three and six months. Fellows will have all the privileges of the centre and will have their own desk or carrel in the library. The maximum stipend is US$4,000 per month, plus a one-time supplement worth up to US$1,500 to be used for relocation expenses. When possible, a one-bedroom apartment will be set aside for the fellow's use, with charges for utilities. If an apartment is not available, US$1,000 per month will be offered to help offset rental costs.

International Conferences, Workshops and Exhibitions invites applications for scholarships for the 2014 e-learning conference that will take place from 28 to 30 May 2014 in Kampa, Uganda. The conference provides a gathering place for all experts and stakeholders engaged or interested in ICT-based education, training and development on the African continent. The theme of this year is 'opening frontiers to the future'. All African nationals based in Africa on a low income who are working within the area of ICT-supported education and training may apply. African employees of international organisations and global corporations cannot apply for a scholarship. The number of scholarships granted is dependent on the funds received by ICWE.

Closing date: 24 Feb 15 (Forecast)

Deadline information: !! Call has not yet been announced by funder but this is the approximate deadline we expect. Applicants must not register for the conference until the results of the scholarship application are announced. This call is repeated once a year.

VISITING FELLOWSHIPS University of Helsinki

Description:

The University of Helsinki Aleksanteri Institute invites applications for its visiting fellowships. These provide highly qualified scholars in Russian and Eastern European studies with the opportunity to visit and carry out research at the Aleksanteri Institute and the University of Helsinki.

Fellows will have the opportunity to conduct research and interact with other researchers at the institute and the wider academic community at the University of Helsinki and in Finland. They will have research hosts who are working on related themes and helping fellows establish contacts with the research community in Finland. Fellows may also accept invitations for short visits to other Finnish universities.

Fellowships support periods between two and three months and include a monthly grant of €2,600.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR MARCH 2015

TRAVEL GRANTS

White House Historical Association

Description:

The White House Historical Association invites applications for its travel grants. The purpose is to defray travel and accommodation costs for scholars conducting research at the National Archives and Records Administration, Presidential Library System, Library of Congress, or other appropriate repository. The association wishes to encourage new scholarship on the history of the White House. Projects that make use of textual and non-textual records pertinent to the president, first family and subordinates while the president lives in the White House are considered. The focus should be the White House, including life and work there, as well the physical structure. Topics would include:

- image of the White House;
- White House personnel;
- social and diplomatic functions;
- study of the structure and its contents;
- family life;
- communications.

Preference is given to those undertaking dissertation or post-doctoral research with plans for publication, but all proposals, including graduate-level research and independent projects, will be considered.

Grants are worth up to $2,000.

NEW MEDIA RESIDENCIES Canada Council for the Arts – Conseil des Arts du Canada

Description:

The Canada Council for the Arts invites applications under its new media residencies programme. This encourages productive collaboration and knowledge exchange between independent, Canadian professional artists who use new media technologies as means of artistic expression and other sectors of society working with new or emerging technologies. These grants help support residencies for professional Canadian artists committed to the creation of independent artworks over which the artist retains full control. The programme has two components, research residencies and production residencies.

Host organisations are welcome to apply for a grant to host a residency for an artist or a group of up to three artists working collaboratively on a project. Host organisations may be located in Canada or elsewhere. The programme is also open to Aboriginal organisations and organisations of diverse cultural and regional communities of Canada. Canadian media arts artist-run centres are not eligible to apply to this programme. Guest artists must be mid-career or established artists, Canadian citizens or have permanent resident status at the time of the application deadline for this programme. Only graduate students are eligible. Guest artists must be Canadian citizens or persons with permanent resident status, but do not have to be living in Canada when the organisation submits its application.

Funding is worth a maximum of CA$30,000 for research residencies and a maximum of CA$60,000 for production residencies. There is no minimum duration for the proposed residency but residencies of three months or more are encouraged.

Closing date: 02 Mar 15

TRAVEL AWARDS
International Society for Neurochemistry

Description:

The International Society for Neurochemistry invites applications for its travel awards. These allow young investigators to attend the biennial meeting, to be held in Cairns, Australia, from 23 to 27 August 2015.

Applicants must be the first and presenting authors of a submitted abstract. Applications are only open to ISN members. Non-members may apply for membership at the time of submission. Priority is given to younger investigators who are within eight years from the award of their first doctoral degree, research students and persons who have not previously received support and do not hold a permanent position.

Grants vary depending on the region the applicant is travelling from and may not cover full expenses. Grants for travel from Europe are worth US$1,200, from North America US$700, from South America US$1,600, from the Asia-Pacific region US$2,000, and from Africa US$2,000. In addition, the society provides the conference registration fees.

NATIONAL BIOTECHNOLOGY CONFERENCE TRAVELSHIPS

American Association of Pharmaceutical Scientists

Description:

The American Association of Pharmaceutical Scientists invites applications for its national biotechnology conference travelships. These support individuals presenting papers at the AAPS National Biotechnology Conference, to be held between 19 and 21 May 2014 in San Diego, with travel expenses to the event. The following awards are available:

- five analysis and pharmaceutical quality section travelships, worth US$500 each, for graduate students, postdoctorate researchers and junior faculty;
- five biotechnology section travelships, worth US$500 each, for graduates and postdoctoral researchers;
- two clinical pharmacology and translational research section travelships, worth US$500 each, for graduate students, postdoctoral researchers and junior faculty;
- one drug discovery and development interface section travelship of US$750, with funding from Merck, for a graduate student or a postdoctoral researcher;
- four formulation design and development section travelships, worth US$750 each, for graduate students and postdoctoral researchers;
- two manufacturing science and engineering section travelships, worth US$500 each, for graduate students and postdoctoral researchers;
- one physical pharmacy and biopharmaceutics section travelship of US$500 for a graduate students or postdoctoral researcher;

- one pharmacokinetics, pharmacodynamics and drug metabolism section travelship of US$500 for a graduate student or postdoctoral researcher;
- one regulatory sciences travelship of US$500 for a graduate student or postdoctoral researcher, with preference given to students enrolled in quality assurance and regulatory affairs programmes.

To be eligible, applicants must be currently enrolled as fulltime students and be first authors of the accepted abstract. Association membership from January 2014 onwards is also required.

RESEARCH TRAVEL GRANTS

Terra Foundation for American Art

Description:

The Terra Foundation for American Art invites applications for its research travel grants. These enable foreign scholars to travel to the US to pursue research on topics concerning American art and visual culture prior to 1980. Funding gives scholars the opportunity to:

- discover new source material;
- experience works of art firsthand in museums and private collections;
- make contact with artists, curators and art dealers;
- consult local archives and library collections;
- establish professional networks for future research.

Applicants should be doctoral students or scholars within ten years of receiving their degree. Only individuals based outside of the US may apply.

Six to nine grants, worth up to US$6,000 for doctoral students and US$9,000 for scholars, are available annually.

Closing date: 15 Jan 15 (Forecast)

TRAVEL GRANTS

White House Historical Association

Description:

The White House Historical Association invites applications for its travel grants. The purpose is to defray travel and accommodation costs for scholars conducting research at the National Archives and Records Administration, Presidential Library System, Library of Congress, or other appropriate repository. The association wishes to encourage new scholarship on the history of the White House. Projects that make use of textual and non-textual records pertinent to the president, first family and subordinates while the president lives in the White House are considered. The focus should be the White House, including life and work there, as well the physical structure. Topics would include:

- image of the White House;
- White House personnel;
- social and diplomatic functions;
- study of the structure and its contents;
- family life;
- communications.

Preference is given to those undertaking dissertation or post-doctoral research with plans for publication, but all proposals, including graduate-level research and independent projects, will be considered. Grants are worth up to $2,000.

NEW MEDIA RESIDENCIES Canada Council for the Arts – Conseil des Arts du Canada

Description:

The Canada Council for the Arts invites applications under its new media residencies programme. This encourages productive collaboration and knowledge exchange between independent, Canadian professional artists who use new media technologies as means of artistic expression and other sectors of society working with new or emerging technologies. These grants help support residencies for professional Canadian artists committed to the creation of independent artworks over which the artist retains full control. The programme has two components, research residencies and production residencies.

Host organisations are welcome to apply for a grant to host a residency for an artist or a group of up to three artists working collaboratively on a project. Host organisations may be located in Canada or elsewhere. The programme is also open to Aboriginal organisations and organisations of diverse cultural and regional communities of Canada. Canadian media arts artist-run centres are not eligible to apply to this programme. Guest artists must be mid-career or established artists, Canadian citizens or have permanent resident status at the time of the application deadline for this programme. Only graduate students are eligible. Guest artists must be Canadian citizens or persons with permanent resident status, but do not have to be living in Canada when the organisation submits its application.

Funding is worth a maximum of CA$30,000 for research residencies and a maximum of CA$60,000 for production residencies. There is no minimum duration for the proposed residency but residencies of three months or more are encouraged.

Closing date: 02 Mar 15

Deadline information: Applications due on 1 March and 1 October, annually. If a deadline falls on a weekend or statutory holiday applications are due on the next business day.

TRAVEL AWARDS
International Society for Neurochemistry

Description:

The International Society for Neurochemistry invites applications for its travel awards. These allow young investigators to attend the biennial meeting, to be held in Cairns, Australia, from 23 to 27 August 2015.

Applicants must be the first and presenting authors of a submitted abstract. Applications are only open to ISN members. Non-members may apply for membership at the time of submission. Priority is given to younger investigators who are within eight years from the award of their first doctoral degree, research students and persons who have not previously received support and do not hold a permanent position.

Grants vary depending on the region the applicant is travelling from and may not cover full expenses. Grants for travel from Europe are worth US$1,200, from North America US$700, from South America US$1,600, from the Asia-Pacific region US$2,000, and from Africa US$2,000. In addition, the society provides the conference registration fees.

Closing date: 02 Mar 15

Deadline information: This call is repeated every 2 years.

NATIONAL BIOTECHNOLOGY CONFERENCE TRAVELSHIPS

Description:

The American Association of Pharmaceutical Scientists invites applications for its national biotechnology conference travelships. These support individuals presenting papers at the AAPS National Biotechnology Conference, to be held between 19 and 21 May 2014 in San Diego, with travel expenses to the event. The following awards are available:

- five analysis and pharmaceutical quality section travelships, worth US$500 each, for graduate students, postdoctorate researchers and junior faculty;
- five biotechnology section travelships, worth US$500 each, for graduates and postdoctoral researchers;
- two clinical pharmacology and translational research section travelships, worth US$500 each, for graduate students, postdoctoral researchers and junior faculty;
- one drug discovery and development interface section travelship of US$750, with funding from Merck, for a graduate student or a postdoctoral researcher;
- four formulation design and development section travelships, worth US$750 each, for graduate students and postdoctoral researchers;
- two manufacturing science and engineering section travelships, worth US$500 each, for graduate students and postdoctoral researchers;
- one physical pharmacy and biopharmaceutics section travelship of US$500 for a graduate students or postdoctoral researcher;

- one pharmacokinetics, pharmacodynamics and drug metabolism section travelship of US$500 for a graduate student or postdoctoral researcher;
- one regulatory sciences travelship of US$500 for a graduate student or postdoctoral researcher, with preference given to students enrolled in quality assurance and regulatory affairs programmes.

To be eligible, applicants must be currently enrolled as fulltime students and be first authors of the accepted abstract. Association membership from January 2014 onwards is also required.

Only one submission per section member will be considered for each award.

SUMMER WORKSHOP ON INTERNATIONAL ORGANISATION STUDIES

Academic Council of the United Nations System

Description:

The Academic Council on the United Nations System and the American Society of International Law invite applications for their summer workshop on international organisation studies. The theme for 2013 is nuclear disarmament and non-proliferation. The workshop seeks to support participants in developing scholarly and practice-based knowledge and applied skills in the analysis of a number of issue areas related to the workshop theme.

Topics include:

- the development, agreement and implementation or reinforcement of norms, policies, treaties and laws/regulations around nuclear security and safety;
- the lessons of historical 'problem cases' for nuclear disarmament and non-proliferation;
- the national, regional and global challenges posed by decommissioning, disaster mitigation and the threats of nuclear terrorism;
- the roles, interests and agendas of national governments, international organisations, the private sector, individual leaders and experts, NGOs, civil society movements and the media in creating knowledge and awareness of nuclear disarmament and non-proliferation initiatives;

- north-south and south-south cooperation in using nuclear technology for peaceful applications.

The workshop is designed for scholars in international relations and international law, and from other fields relevant to the workshop. Practitioners from NGOs and government institutions are also encouraged to apply.

The participants will receive the lowest-cost economy class return air travel between their location and the workshop site, accommodations and some meals for the duration of the workshop.

AFRICA WORKSHOP
American Political Science Association

Description:

The American Political Science Association, in partnership with the University of Botswana, invites applications for participation in its Africa workshop. This workshop on local communities and the state in Africa, with a focus on field research methods, will be held from 15 to 27 July 2012 at the University of Botswana in Gaborone. The workshop will conceptualise and study:

- interactions between local communities and the state that go beyond a narrow geographical concentration on a particular community;
- linkages that connect local, national and transnational actors.

University and college faculty in the social sciences residing in Africa, who have completed their PhD and are in the early stages of their academic career may apply. A limited number of places are also available for advanced US PhD students. Applicants must be actively engaged in an empirical research project in political science or an area of inquiry related to politics. Applicants must be working on a manuscript, paper, book chapter or article for publication. Applicants must be professionally fluent in English. The organisers will cover the costs of participation, including travel, lodging, meals and workshop materials, for up to 26 applicants.
