OPPORTUNITIES FOR OCTOBER 2015

JWT JONES TRAVELLING FELLOWSHIP Royal Society of Chemistry

Description:

The Royal Society of Chemistry invites applications for the JWT Jones travelling fellowship. This enables younger chemists to carry out short-term studies in well-established scientific centres abroad and to learn and use techniques not accessible to them in their own country.

Candidates must have been members of the society for at least one year and should be under 45 years of age. They must hold at least a doctorate in chemistry or related subject and should already be in post and actively engaged in independent research. Applicants are required to return to their country of origin upon termination of the fellowship so that the applicant's home country may benefit from the broadened knowledge acquired during the fellowship.

The fellowship is worth up to £5,000 over one to three months to cover travel and subsistence.

Closing date: 01 Oct 15

Deadline information: Deadlines on: 1 October 2015, 1 January 2016, 1 April 2016, 1 July 2016, and repeated annually.

R RESEARCH VISIT GRANTS Society for General Microbiology

Description:

The Society for General Microbiology invites applications for its research visit grants. These enable researchers from the UK or Republic of Ireland to visit another laboratory worldwide, or international researchers to visit a laboratory in the UK or ROI, to carry out a defined piece of microbiology research, whether within an established or new collaboration initiative.

Applications are open to members of the society who fall into one of the following categories:

- registered for a PhD or are PhD qualified and employed in a postdoctoral research position in a university, hospital or research institute worldwide;

- a university lecturer within three years of appointment to their first post in the UK or Republic of Ireland.

Grants are worth up to £3,000 each for visits lasting four weeks to three months. Funds may be used to contribute to travel, accommodation and subsistence costs in making the visit, or towards the costs of project consumables.

T WAS VISITING EXPERT PROGRAMME TWAS

Description:

The World Academy of Sciences invites applications for its visiting expert programme. Funding supports visits by internationally renowned scientists to institutions located in developing countries, particularly in least developed countries. The programme provides institutions and research groups in developing countries, especially those with limited outside contacts, with the opportunity to establish long-term links with world leaders in science.

Host institutions can invite internationally renowned experts in areas of science other than mathematics and physics for a minimum stay of two weeks to collaborate in research and training. Nominations of women are particularly welcomed. Visiting experts should have a PhD degree. Only applicants who have attained international recognition in the field of science will be considered.

An honorarium of US$200 and economy class travel are provided. The host institution is expected to cover local expenses.

Closing date: 01 Oct 15

SYMPOSIA VolkswagenStiftung – Volkswagen Foundation

Description:

The Volkswagen Foundation invites applications for its symposia grants. These support events in all subject areas which provide the opportunity to develop new ideas and cutting-edge research perspectives. The Foundation particularly wants to encourage the development and testing of new event formats and instruments to promote the interaction among the participants

Funding can be made available for symposia, workshops and conferences with up to 250 participants. The event shall be held in the Herrenhausen Palace convention centre in Hanover. The basic requirements are:

- an interdisciplinary and international orientation;
- active participation of young researchers (doctoral candidates and post-doctoral researchers);
- a significant representation of women both as speakers and participants;
- a significant participation of German scientists or scholars;

The main applicant should be an academic from a German university or research institute. According to the statutes, the foundation can only grant funding to scientific institutions. Applications must be submitted at least eight months prior to the event date.

Funding is available for travel, accommodation, catering, staff, child care, the publication of papers in the internet and non-personnel costs like printing and publication.

TRAVEL GRANTS – SECOND ROUND

Udenrigsministeriet – Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark

Description:

The Danida Fellowship Centre, on behalf of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, invites applications for the second round of its travel grants. These support thesis field work relevant to Danish development cooperation.

Applicants must be master's students enrolled at a Danish higher education institution who were successful in the first round for this call. Students on OSVAL II studies or on a 4+4 arrangement may apply if the field study is considered part of the master's degree, and will be used for a report equivalent to a master's thesis. The field study must take place in a developing country and be relevant to an ongoing research activity in the chosen country. It must be attached to a local partner in the chosen country, who must be a locally registered institution such as a non-governmental organisation, department of a university, research institution, private company or, in exceptional cases, the local Embassy of Denmark. Preference is given to studies in Danida priority countries.

Grants are worth between DKK15,000 and DKK20,000 each. The total budget is approximately DKK600,000 each year. Funding covers travel costs, visa, travel insurance and lodging expenses for visits lasting at least one month.

FINANCIAL SUPPORT FOR NEUROCHEMISTRY CONFERENCES AND SYMPOSIA International Society for Neurochemistry

Description:

The International Society for Neurochemistry's Conference Committee invites applications for its financial support. This supports organisation of small conferences on specialised neurochemical topics and sponsors neurochemistry symposia within meetings of other scientific societies or groups. A symposium is a session within a meeting that normally consists of three to five presentations.

Proposed conferences or symposia should deal with an important and up-to-date topic of neurochemistry, and be international, preferably intercontinental, as reflected by the composition of the organising committee, the list of prospective invited speakers and the countries of origin of the expected attendees.

Applications for local conferences, full short meetings or satellite meetings will not be considered. The committee strongly discourages applications to support a second consecutive conference or workshop in a series of meetings, or workshops that are organised by one society, one organiser or a group of organisers. Priority will be given to conferences that have not previously received ISN-CC support.

ISN provides funds of up to US$20,000 for a small conference, at least 60 per cent of which is expected to be used as young neurochemistry awards to facilitate the attendance of young neurochemists. Symposium funding is worth up to US$7,000, which may be used to cover travel, registration and accommodation expenses of speakers. Expenses for honoraria, food and social events will not be funded.

Closing date: 31 Oct 15

Deadline information: Applications must be received at least four months before the conference. Deadlines on: 31 October 2015, 30 April 2016, and repeated annually.

CONNECTION GRANTS FOR EVENTS

Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada – Conseil de Recherches en Sciences Humaines

Description:

The Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada invites applications for its connection grants for events. These support events that may be face-to-face workshops or conferences held in Canada or abroad, discipline-specific, cross-disciplinary, cross-sectoral, or consist of open or closed invitation. The overall aim of the grants is to support events geared toward short-term, targeted knowledge mobilisation initiatives in the field of social sciences and humanities. Suitable activities include organising or co-organising the event, or organising or leading a formal session, workshop or other activity consistent with the objectives of the council's connection programme.

Applicants may be individuals, teams or institutions. All applicants should be affiliated with an eligible Canadian postsecondary institution while applying or, in the case of postdoctoral fellows and researchers, should establish an affiliation within three months of the grant start date.

Co-applicants may be included from international or Canadian postsecondary institutions, non-profit organisations, philanthropic foundations, think tanks, as well as municipal, territorial or provincial governments.

Grants are worth between CA$7,000 and CA$25,000 over one year, and do not cover more than 50 per cent of the eligible costs.

Closing date: 01 Nov 15

INTELLECTUAL EXCHANGE CONFERENCES GRANTS

Japan Foundation

Description:

The Japan Foundation invites applications for its intellectual exchange conferences grants. These are designed to strengthen intellectual exchange between Japan and other countries and to fortify Japan's intellectual contribution in the world by supporting dialogue on regionally or globally shared issues. This year's priority areas include:

- challenges that concern both Japan and other nations and major international issues;
- topics relevant to Japan that contribute to facilitating a greater understanding of Japan overseas, and Japanese bilateral relations with foreign nations.

Additionally, special attention will be given to proposals attempting to share information and experiences on the great east Japan earthquake.

Non-profit organisations in any country except Brunei, Cambodia, Indonesia, Laos, Malaysia, Myanmar, The Philippines, Singapore, Thailand, Vietnam, and the US may apply. Individuals and successfully awarded organisations from the past three fiscal years are not eligible to apply.

Funding may be used to cover travel expenses, honoraria for presenters or staff, and other costs related to arranging the conference. In recent years, grants were worth approximately ¥2 million.
